Pigs Eat Wolves® Seminar

Saturday, November 10, 2007

10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Pigs Eat Wolves® is a tale about growing the wise self through examining and partnering with our shadow side.

Carl Jung says that our shadow side is made up of gold.
Why is it then that we fear it?

We often do because the shadow is composed of the

- Exalted parts of us

And

- Despised parts of us,

both of which we fear and deny.

We furtively thrust our exalted and despised selves into the darkness and then fear and blame the darkness for what we have placed in it.

Come to the author's seminar and get a guided insider's glimpse of what will be in store for you once you have understood and mined the darkness for psychological and spiritual gold.

DATE: Saturday, November 10, 2007

TIME: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

LOCATION: Lake Harriet Spiritual Community,
4401 Upton Avenue South, Minneapolis

Seminar fee: $108

ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

MOTHER PIG SPEAKS REALITY INTO EXISTENCE

The ball player asked the umpire, "Was that a ball or a strike?" The umpire replied, "It ain't nothin' 'til I calls it."

Mother Pig is the umpire. Nothing becomes real until she says it is. Nothing has meaning until she gives it and only then does it become experience. She brings order (cosmos) out of mystery (chaos.)

THE WOLF IS ALL THAT IS LEFT OUT

He is the devouring guard. He is what we cannot yet contain, understand, or know. He is to later become The Merlin, The Hag, The Guru. He is the mystery. He is the knowable unknown. He is the unknowable unknown, For most, he is chaos.

THE LITTLE PIGS ARE US ON OUR QUEST

Our journey is a quest that is guided by our readiness to see what is before us and eventually to examine what has been rendered invisible. COME OUT AND PLAY.
